matters unrelated to the investigation (Scarcella: 1097-98). When Scarcella began to discuss the incident at 2 Hope Street, he read defendant Miranda warnings from a card, and defendant responded that he understood the rights read to him and was willing to answer questions (Scarcella: 1101-04).

Scarcella told defendant that he felt defendant was involved in the case and that he knew that defendant was having problems with the mother of his children, Eric and Jasmine (Scarcella: 1098). Defendant said to Scarcella, "Whatever I say now, my life is over; I am never going to see my kids again." (Scarcella: 1098). Defendant told Scarcella that he would tell what happened if his children were brought to him. Scarcella arranged for a detective to bring Jasmine and Eric Lopez to the 90th Precinct (Scarcella: 1099, 1131). Each child was brought into the interview room for a visit with defendant (Scarcella: 1100). Defendant hugged and kissed each child, and then the children were taken back to the Bronx (Scarcella: 1100-01, 1131).

At about 11:30 p.m., after the visit with his children, defendant began to cry and told Scarcella and Chemil that "you guys got it right" (Scarcella: 1104, 1131, 1149). At about 12:45 a.m., defendant asked to use the telephone (Scarcella: 1107). Scarcella took defendant to an office and stayed with him while defendant spoke on the telephone with his

You got it right, I was there I had a gun and I was down on the robbery. I am gonna tell you everything. I had a .38 Revolver - we went up to the apt, it was me, Jamal - Kwan, Quincy, Shortime (Lamel) - we went into the Crack Spot in 265-Lavonia apt 10C - I think that is the apt. We was gonna rob everybody in the Spot. There was a man in the hallway. Jamal grabbed him and told him to knock on the door. When he knocked on the door the door opened we rushed the apt. Shortime or Jamal went in first - The I was the last one in - Everybody went in first. Shortime + Kwan went into the back - now I heard a lot of ~~shouting~~ <sup>shouting</sup> - now Quincy found a jacket full of money and took it - then he ran out of the apt - I followed him - when we got to the 9th floor we heard a lot of shots - there were a lot of shots. a few days later I saw Kwan + Jamal - Jamal called Kwan stupid for shooting the boy because we all lived in the bldg. I am not sure who had the Uzi - I think it might have been Shortime (Lamel) or Kwan - Kevin Daniels they call him Ultra he was the lookout on the first floor he did not have a gun - this guy milt mike got arrested too. Jamal + Quincy got locked up also - I think they locked up this guy willie Cook also.
